

ABOUT AOHF

Artist Open House Fremantle is an art event where art is shown and sold in private homes in Fremantle, Western Australia. Walking inside these homes, you will see affordable art by emerging artists sitting alongside work from more established artists. Much of the art will be affordable (under $1500) and we offer lay-by, making purchasing art easy!

BECOME A FRIEND

AOHF's goal is to make art accessible and affordable to everyone. By becoming a Friend of AOHF, you are helping us host this event every year.

For $50 you will have your name on our Friends List on the website (coming in 2015), and an advanced copy of the 2015 event guide.

For $100, you will have your name on our Friends List on the website (coming in 2015), an advanced copy of the 2015 event guide, and an invitation for two to the 2015 event launch party.

Check our website for further details:

PARKING

There's heaps of parking in South Fremantle! AOHF is a walking trail, so you can park anywhere in South Fremantle, and wander between the 5 houses with ease, ending your trip at one of the cool coffee shops.

PUBLIC TRANSPORT

Take the free blue CAT bus along Market St in Fremantle, and stop at Stand Number 9 or 12. Both stops are just a hop, skip and jump away from the Open Home on the bottom end of Scott St – a great place to start your trail. Blue CAT buses run every 10 minutes, 7 days a week.

PAYMENT OPTIONS

CASH, CREDIT CARD, LAY-BY

LAY-BY

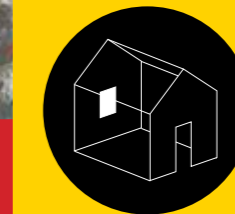

Just pay 30% deposit, and make regular payments over the next 12 weeks and you'll have the artwork hanging in your house well before summer is over!

ABOUT THE COVER ARTIST

Each year, AOHF features the work of one participating artist on its event guide cover and poster. This year, we are proud to show you the work of Becky Blair. Born and raised in the UK, Becky has a particular love for Fremantle and its beaches.
